Team training & behavioral analyses

At Kragerup, we would like to offer our conference guests even more facilitated team building options. Therefore, we offer this service from our partner Ole Rasmussen who has more than 30 years of experience in facilitated teambuilding, for example from the military, and he has been working as an event manager for the last 13 years. He is an educate business consultant specializing in change management, teambuilding, leadership and employee development and can therefore offer subsequent feedback, evaluation of the event as well as a behavioral analysis. Ole can both use his own exercises or ours.

Trolley

Make your teambuilding extra cozy with a trolley filled with cold drinks and tasty snacks. Take it along to the activities and enjoy a refreshing break along the way. The contents of the trolley are charged based on consumption, so you can easily and flexibly adapt the day to your needs.

Garden Games

Make your meeting or conference even more memorable. We offer fun and informal garden games as the perfect break in the program – strengthen team spirit, get some fresh air, and create smiles across colleagues in scenic surroundings. Choose between spikeball, ladder golf, and Kubb.
